

How to Guide- Google Translate

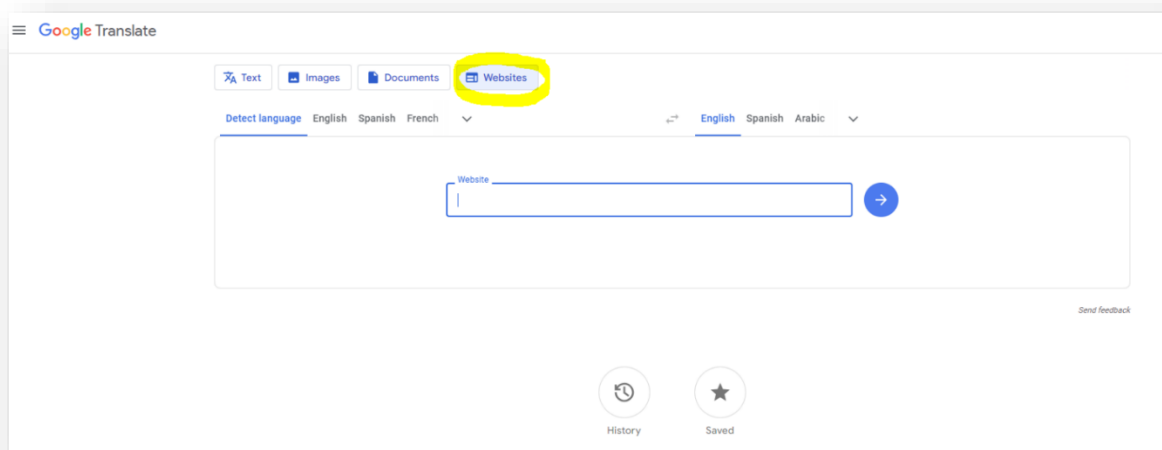

Step 1: In Google search for the website you would like to change the language of. Right click and copy the full website address.

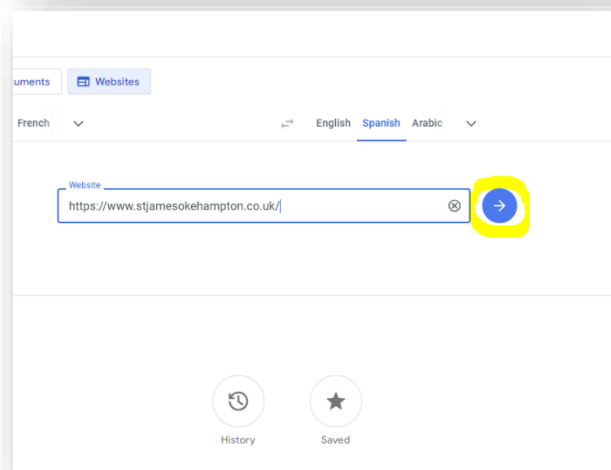

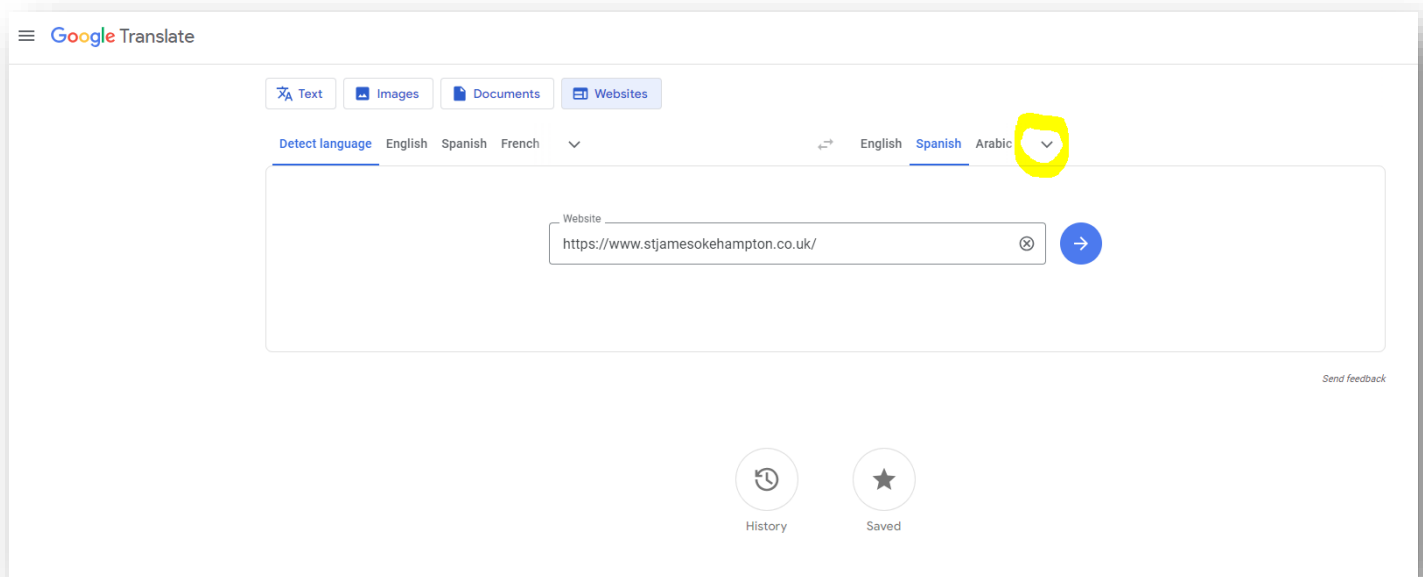

Step 2: In Google, search Google Translate and click the link to go to the website.

Step 3: Click the website button.

Step 4: Right click in the box titled website and paste in the website address which you would like to convert. Click the small arrow to choose the language you would like to convert too.

Step 5: Click the blue arrow button to go to the converted website.

Step 6: When viewing the converted website, Google Translate will show at the top of the page giving you the option to change between languages.

You can also use Google Translate to convert text, images & documents into a language of your choice by clicking the buttons below in Google Translate.

